

Corporate and business plan: 2014-15 to 2016-17

Introduction

- 1.1 The Office for Budget Responsibility (OBR) provides independent and authoritative analysis of the UK's public finances. We are a Non-Departmental Public Body (NDPB) and became a statutory body on 4 April 2011 following Royal Assent of the Budget Responsibility and National Audit Act 2011. Prior to Royal Assent the OBR existed as a non-statutory body from 17 May 2010.
- 1.2 This Corporate and business plan sets out our key achievements in 2013-14, sets out our business plan for 2014-15, and outlines our corporate objectives and anticipated outputs and structure up to 2016-17. It is effective from 1 April 2014.

Statutory remit and structure of the OBR

- 1.3 The Budget Responsibility and National Audit Act 2011 requires the OBR to examine and report on the sustainability of the public finances. This is a broad remit that allows us to analyse the public finances from many angles. We have complete discretion to set our own work programme, subject to meeting the following core annual requirements and guidance set out in the Act and the accompanying Charter for Budget Responsibility:
  - the production of at least two fiscal and economic forecasts, in each case accompanied by an assessment of the extent to which the Government's fiscal mandate has been, or is likely to be, achieved. The Charter sets out that the Government intends to adopt the OBR's forecasts as the official forecasts for the annual Budget;
  - an assessment of the accuracy of our previously prepared fiscal and economic forecasts; and
  - an analysis of the sustainability of the public finances.
- 1.4 In Autumn Statement 2013, the Government set out an additional responsibility for the OBR, to assess the Government's performance against a welfare cap, subsequently set at Budget 2014, and to produce an annual report on trends in welfare spending.

- 1.5 The Charter sets out that our forecasts should be based on all Government policy decisions that have material impact on the fiscal outlook and that can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. To this end, we also independently scrutinise and certify the Government's estimates of the cost of policy decisions. The Act and Charter also specify that we should not consider the effect of alternative policies and should not provide normative commentary on the particular merits of Government policy.
- 1.6 Our independence is central to the effective delivery of our responsibilities, and to support this we are required by the Act to perform our objectives objectively, transparently and impartially.
- 1.7 The OBR comprises five members: the Budget Responsibility Committee (BRC) – Robert Chote (Chair), Steve Nickell and Graham Parker; and two non-executive members – Lord Burns and Kate Barker. The BRC is solely responsible for the delivery of the OBR's core responsibilities as set out above. The non-executive members are required to keep the OBR's performance under review, and together with the BRC form the OBR's Oversight Board, which is chaired by Lord Burns. In 2014-15, consistent with the requirements of the Act, the non-executive members have commissioned an external review of the OBR, to be carried out by Kevin Page, former Parliamentary Budget Officer in Canada. The review will report in September 2014.
- 1.8 In 2013-14, the OBR employed a staff of 16 to provide analytical and corporate support, led by the Head of Staff – Andy King. From 2014-15, the OBR staff will expand to 19 reflecting the additional responsibilities that have been set in relation to the welfare cap and trends in welfare spending.
- 1.9 We are accountable to both the Chancellor of the Exchequer and Parliament for the analysis we produce and the way we use public funds. Our sponsor department is HM Treasury. Our initial multi-year financial settlement was set over the spending review period to 2014-15. A new multi-year settlement for the period 2014-15 to 2017-18 has been agreed with the Treasury, which covers the remaining two years for which detailed Government spending plans have been set and an indicative budget for two further years.

Objectives, outputs and structures

Objectives

- 1.10 The principal objective of the OBR is to provide independent and authoritative analysis of the UK's public finances. We aim to achieve this objective through:
- delivering high quality, objective and impartial economic and fiscal analysis, forecasts and long-term projections;
  - raising public understanding by presenting our outputs clearly through published documents, the website, presentations and speeches;
  - ensuring we are fully transparent about the assumptions, judgements and methodologies that we use, and the conclusions we reach;

- working effectively with stakeholders both inside and outside Government, while protecting our independence and taking full responsibility for the content of all our outputs; and
- ensuring we have robust governance structures, are managed effectively and are transparent about how we work and our finances.

Outputs

1.11 We will deliver our objectives through a range of outputs:

- we publish medium-term forecasts twice a year in our Economic and fiscal outlook (EFO) publication. We publish these forecasts alongside the Government's Budget and Autumn Statement fiscal events, and incorporate the impact of any tax and spending policy measures announced at those events. Our annual Forecast evaluation report will examine what lessons we can learn from our recent forecasting performance;
- in the EFO, we assess whether the Government has a greater than 50 per cent probability of hitting its fiscal targets under current policy. We also investigate the robustness of this judgement, given the uncertainty inherent in all fiscal forecasts;
- during the run-up to Budgets and other policy statements, we subject the Government's draft costings of tax and spending measures to detailed challenge and scrutiny. We will then state in the EFO and the Treasury's costing documents whether we endorse the costings that the Government finally publishes as reasonable central estimates;
- we assess the long-term sustainability of the public finances in our annual Fiscal sustainability report, which sets out long-term projections for different categories of spending and revenue, analyses the public sector's balance sheet, including the Whole of Government Accounts, and reports on summary indicators of long-term fiscal sustainability;
- we undertake a variety of relevant research projects through the year. We publish material through our series of Briefing papers, Working papers and Discussion papers to inform people about our work. We also provide a monthly commentary on the ONS public finances data;
- we answer enquiries on our forecasts and give evidence to parliamentary committees. BRC members and OBR staff also give talks and presentations at external events; and
- we produce an Annual Report on our activities over the previous year, together with our audited accounts.

Structures

1.12 We have a set of management, advisory and support structures to help us meet our objectives:

- the OBR's Oversight Board comprises the members of the BRC and the non-executive members, and is chaired by Lord Burns. The Oversight Board oversees the strategic aims of the OBR, ensures high standards of corporate governance and internal control, and reviews the performance of the OBR. It is also responsible for production of the Annual Report;
- a management group, led by Robert Chote as the Chair of the OBR, has executive responsibility for the overall management of the OBR, responsible for implementing strategic decisions taken by the OBR and making any decisions relating to the day-to-day running of the OBR;
- an advisory panel of technical experts advises us on our work programme and analytical methods. The panel was appointed in March 2011. It meets once a year and its members also provide further advice and comment on request from the OBR; and
- we purchase administrative support services from other Government departments. Finance, HR and security vetting support services are provided by HM Treasury under a Service Level Agreement. IS support services are provided by the Attorney General's Office, with whom we share office accommodation.

Achievements in 2013-14

- 1.13 The key achievements in 2013-14 were the delivery of the December 2013 and March 2014 Economic and fiscal outlooks, the Fiscal sustainability report in July 2013 and the Forecast evaluation report in October 2013.
- 1.14 We published two Briefing papers in 2013-14: Briefing paper No.5 – The macroeconomic model and Briefing paper No.6 – Policy costings and our forecast. In addition, we produced a simple guide to the public finances and our forecasts.
- 1.15 We also published a set of audited accounts in June 2013 in our second Annual report and accounts.

Specific milestones in 2013-14

May 2013	Meeting of OBR advisory panel – reviewed OBR outputs in previous year and discussed the effects of the financial crisis on the public finances and the implications of the updated monetary policy remit.

March 2014	Publication of spring Economic and fiscal outlook Publication of Briefing paper No.6: Policy costings and our forecast

Business activity plan for 2014-15

1.16 Two business objectives will continue to guide the work of the OBR in 2014-15:

Business objective 1: Fulfil our duties under the Act and Charter to examine and report on the sustainability of the public finances

1.17 We will achieve this by:

- publishing our next Fiscal sustainability report in July 2014. This will set out long-term projections for different categories of spending and revenue, analyse the public sector's balance sheet using the Government's updated Whole of Government Accounts, and report on summary indicators of long-term sustainability;
- publishing our next Forecast evaluation report in autumn 2014. This will examine what lessons we can learn from our recent forecasting performance for improving the techniques we use;
- publishing our first report on trends in welfare spending and the underlying drivers of those trends, also in autumn 2014;

- producing two sets of updated economic and fiscal forecasts, in autumn 2014 and alongside Budget 2015, on dates set by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. We will continue to publish forecasts for some Scottish taxes alongside the main forecast, fulfilling the requirements set out for us in the Scotland Act. We will also for the first time publish forecasts for some Welsh taxes;
- scrutinising the Government's costings of new policies, including for Budget 2015;
- continuing to publish monthly commentary on the ONS/HMT Public Sector Finances release;
- publishing further Briefing and Working papers, including a discussion of different approaches to measuring spare capacity, a review of the public finances since the 2008-09 financial crisis and a description of how we forecast developments in the housing market and the effects they have on the public finances;
- continuing to work with our advisory panel of technical experts on our work programme and analytical methods;
- informing our analysis and methodological approaches by engaging widely with economic and fiscal analysts in Government and the private sector from across the UK, and with international organisations; and
- developing our communications strategy for external stakeholders.

Business objective 2: Ensure our governance and operational arrangements are fit for purpose and allow us to operate as a responsible, effective and transparent NDPB, whilst meeting statutory and other requirements.

1.18 We will achieve this by:

- facilitating and working with our Oversight Board and continuing to develop appropriate corporate processes;
- consistent with the requirements of the Act, appointing an independent external reviewer in 2014-15 to review the quality of our reports. That review will be undertaken by Kevin Page, former Parliamentary Budget Officer in Canada, and will be published in September 2014;
- maintaining corporate and human resources policies and processes that will facilitate the hiring, retention and development of a skilled, highly motivated and professional staff. In particular we will:
  - monitor and assess the effectiveness of the performance appraisal system we have established for OBR staff;
  - continually review our staff structures against our deliverables to ensure any resource pressures are quickly identified and dealt with;
  - recruit for any vacancies that arise through open competitions; and

- ensure staff are fully involved in the operation and development of the OBR through ongoing and open communication and consultation.
- ensuring independent financial reporting and accounting arrangements are in place, and maintain appropriate internal controls, working with our independent qualified Financial Adviser and endorsed by the Audit & Risk Assurance Committee. In particular we will:
  - ensure we have appropriate processes in place to record and monitor all financial transactions;
  - record hospitality and expenses and publish those of the BRC on the website;
  - keep our budget under review on a monthly, quarterly and annual basis, and provide appropriate reporting to the Oversight Board;
  - ensure we have an agreed strategy to live within our new multi-year financial settlement;
  - produce and publish audited annual accounts alongside our Annual report and accounts; and
  - review support service contracts ahead of renewal to ensure value for money and appropriate level of service.
- maintaining a security policy, business continuity plan and risk management plan that have been endorsed by our Audit & Risk Assurance Committee; and
- being transparent about the way we work and how we spend public funds, demonstrated by:
  - publishing our correspondence with Parliament and minutes of our Board meetings;
  - publishing records of hospitality and expenses of the BRC members, and all financial transactions over £500; and
  - publishing a transparent Annual report and accounts.

Outputs in 2015-16 and 2016-17

1.19 In 2015-16 and 2016-17, we currently expect to be required to deliver the same set of core outputs as set out above, though there is clearly some uncertainty associated with the May 2015 General Election, after which our responsibilities may evolve with any change of Government.

Resource management

Finances

- 1.20 The OBR is financed via a Grant-in-aid from HM Treasury. Robert Chote is the OBR's Accounting Officer. The OBR's Oversight Board has an Audit & Risk Assurance Committee that is chaired by Kate Barker, one of our non-executive members. This provides oversight of our internal control and risk management structures.
- 1.21 Our delegated budget was set at a flat £1.77 million a year for 2011-12 to 2014-15. This allowed us to be confident of our funding and plan across a number of years. Ensuring that we have the resources necessary to carry out our role is an important part of our independence. In 2014-15, over 70 per cent of our expenditure is expected to be on staff costs. The next single largest component of expenditure is accommodation, which is expected to be around 20 per cent of the total budget.
- 1.22 Following Spending Round 2013, which set detailed departmental spending plans for 2015-16, we have agreed a new multi-year financial settlement with the Treasury covering the years from 2014-15 to 2017-18. This includes funding for additional members of staff who will focus on welfare-related issues associated with the new responsibilities we have been given to assess performance against the welfare cap and analyse trends in welfare spending. For 2014-15, it also includes one-off provision of funding related to the external review of the OBR. As the Government has not set detailed spending plans beyond 2015-16, our multi-year settlement represents a firm commitment for 2014-15 and 2015-16 and an indicative settlement for 2016-17 and 2017-18.

1.23 The OBR is committed to achieving value for money for the taxpayer and to be transparent about the way in which we spend public funds. Sharing services is important in reducing costs, and as a small organisation it makes sense financially to pool resource to achieve scale. We therefore purchase administrative support services such as IS, HR and finance from other Government departments. We publish hospitality and expenses of the BRC on a quarterly basis on our website, and all transactions over £500 on the website every six months. The pay and contracts of the BRC members are also published on our website. We publish full audited accounts in our Annual report and accounts each summer.

Staff

1.24 We currently have a headcount of 19 full-time OBR staff supporting the BRC and non-executive members. When the OBR was first established, a number of our staff were transferred from HM Treasury under Cabinet Office guidelines governing machinery of Government changes. Since then our staff have been recruited on open competition from the wider Civil Service and other organisations. All OBR staff ultimately report to and are appraised by the Chair of the Budget Responsibility Committee. Below is the current OBR organisation structure.
